

DRISHA דרישה

BOOK SALON & BEIT MIDRASH

Led by Dr. Shai Secunda

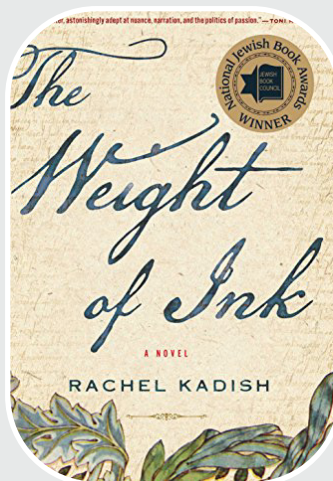

The Drisha Book Salon & Beit Midrash regularly engages with new literature that draws on themes central to Torah texts, and will be moderated by Drisha faculty member, Dr. Shai Secunda. We will learn be-chavruta classical texts that animate these works.

NOVEMBER 15 at 7pm:

THE WEIGHT OF INK

Rachel Kadish's The Weight of Ink (winner of National Jewish Book Award 2017) tells the story of ambitious women who, living in different centuries, both struggle to find their voice. It challenges us to think critically about the lack of women's access to the written word that has impoverished Jewish learning, and encourages us to imagine what happens when, against the odds, Jewish women begin to write.
